Compliance with Other Conditions of Probation. Mr. Campbell is completing his 12-week anger management by seeing a therapist for weekly individual sessions. For the previous review hearing in Sept. '25, Mr. Campbell provided the prosecution with a letter from his therapist documenting five sessions completed so far. Since that time, Mr. Campbell is reporting completion of three additional sessions, for a total of eight sessions so far. He was scheduled to complete the full 12 sessions by 10/15/25, but reports needing to break from sessions for a few weeks when his therapist traveled abroad to attend to a family matter and when Mr. Campbell also traveled home to Arkansas to attend to a family matter. Mr. Campbell reports that he is currently seeking to obtain a letter from his therapist to document the eight sessions completed so far, the temporary break his therapist required to attend to a family matter, and the future sessions scheduled.

GOVERNMENT POSITION:

The Government agrees to the above-described compliance.
